

MURPHY TAKES COMMAND

THE LEGISLATURE IS WHAT THE DEMOCRATS ARE AFTER

Anybody Will Do for Sacrifice on the State Ticket, Says Justice Herick. Chief Justice Herick Likely to Be Beguiled—Campaign Committee's Hopes.

Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., when Richard Croker and the dominant element in the Democratic party of the State acknowledge to be leader, assumed command at the Hoffman House yesterday. In this famous hotel, which Senator Patrick Henry McCarren, chairman of the special committee of ten, has opened headquarters. Senator McCarren's committee is now known as the Democratic Campaign Committee. It is to discover the weak spots in the Democracy up the State and attempt to make them strong spots, to secure carefully the selection of delegates to the Democratic State Convention, and to pave the way for the nomination of the strongest candidates for the Senate and Assembly in the districts where the Democrats are weak.

Senator Murphy is an experienced Democratic campaigner. It was during his reign as chairman of the Democratic State Committee that the Democratic party gained its greatest victories. Senator Murphy was in close contact all day yesterday with Chief Justice Herick, but neither had much to say for print. Senator Murphy did not hesitate to say, though, that the Democratic party would put up a good fight for both its State ticket and its Democratic candidates for the Legislature.

"It is too early," Mr. Murphy added, "to talk about candidates for Governor and other State officers. The convention is over a month off. The Republican party is under indictment for general mismanagement of the State Government. It is not in any one specific instance, but in many. The Legislature has been a scandal. The party has misbehaved, and has mismanaged the people's business and squandered the people's money. There is bound to be a popular chastisement for that party. This is about the people have been bringing about better government and a better State."

Talks with other Democrats at the Hoffman House. Murphy said that the Democratic party was not to be misled by the Republican party. The people will not be misled by any politician. THE PALE CAMPAIGN.

REPUBLICANS WILL FIGHT IT ON THE RECORD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—According to the handbook of the Republican Congressional Committee, which will be issued shortly, the coming campaign will be fought on the record made by the Administration, particularly during the war. The silver question is not treated as an issue at all, though the direful predictions of the silver advocates in 1890 are quoted at length and compared with the existing conditions, which include higher prices for wheat and other farm products and a return of industrial prosperity.

THE COMPOSER OF THE "NIGHTINGALE SONG" AND THE LEWISIT THAT KILLED HIS LIFE.

Dr. Carl Zeller, the composer, died on Wednesday at Baden, Germany. He had the good fortune to write one of the most popular songs of his time. It was sung in every European country, except France possibly, and in the United States it gained all but the popularity of our home-made ballads. It was the "Nightingale Song" in the opera called in English "The Tyroler," and the refrain, "O, how good it is to be a nightingale," was familiar to one end of the country to the other.

This opera, called in German "Der Vogelhaendler," was the composer's most notable work. He was not a young man when it was produced. He was 48 years old at the time. He was a native of Baden, Germany. He was a composer of songs and operas. He was a man of great talent and great industry.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

REPUBLICANS SAY THE DEMOCRATS WILL PUT UP FLOWER.

DEMOCRATS ANNOUNCE THAT THE REPUBLICANS WILL NOMINATE ROOSEVELT—SO IF EACH WERE TO NOMINATE FOR THE OTHER THAT IT APPEARED THE WAY THEY WOULD FIT IT.

The Republicans are letting the Democrats do most of the talking nowadays. "They choose them and doesn't hurt us," say the Republicans. At the proper time the Republicans will begin to shoot their guns. The Republican State Committee is to meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Saturday. Every Republican of prominence is to be on hand, and Sept. 27 and 28 will be the days of the convention.

Notwithstanding the clatter that has been heard in certain quarters, it was said yesterday that there is positively no change in the Republican situation. The friends of Gov. Black continue to insist that he is to be renominated, while other Republicans say that it wouldn't surprise them if Gov. Black announced at any moment that he was not a candidate for re-election.

The Brooklyn Eagle, in a despatch from Montreal, evening, announced that "two well-known New York politicians who came from the city to the Republican convention at the present political situation got a cold reception." The Eagle despatch further says: "The two politicians were Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Theodore Roosevelt. They were both well-known New York politicians who came from the city to the Republican convention at the present political situation got a cold reception."

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TONY.

THE COMPLAINT OF THE DRUGGISTS THAT THERE ARE TOO MANY DRUG STORES IN GREATER NEW YORK WILL PROBABLY BE RECEIVED WITH VERY LITTLE SYMPATHY BY THOSE PERSONS WHO THINK THAT THE CORRUPTIONS OF A DRUG STORE, AND REGARD IT AS A HANDICAP TO BE COMPELLED TO PLUCK A BLOCK TO FIND ONE.

Indeed, it may be contended that for all Greater New York 1,000 drug stores are not too many. It always looks to the observer as if the power of making his establishment prosperous lay with the proprietor himself. The place that prospers is the place that prospers. CHRISTINE NILSSON, OLD.

THE PRIMA DONNA REVISITS THE PLACE OF HER BIRTH IN SWEDEN.

Christine Nilsson has recently sold property in Boston valued at nearly $200,000, if reports from Boston are to be believed, and the object of investing this money in her native land. Although she has lived since her retirement from the stage and her marriage to a Spaniard almost continuously in Paris, it has been observed that she has frequently shown a desire to return to her native land permanently. One of her appearances before an audience of any size took place not long ago on one of her visits to Sweden, when she was serenaded by a large number of students from one of the universities. When they had finished she sang to them several Swedish folksongs from her balcony.

Recently the Countess de Casa Miranda, as she is known in private life, returned to Sweden to visit the village of Snugga, in which she was born nearly sixty years ago. She had not been there for forty years, but the details with which she recounted the place and the people of her youth were so vivid that it seemed as if she had never left. Some of the original furniture is said still to stand in the little house which was Christine's first home, and her first remark on entering the room was: "This is the room in which I was born." She then walked through the room and pointed out the place where she was born. She then walked through the room and pointed out the place where she was born.

There by the big stone is a fresh spring, from which all the water for the village is drawn. I can remember it all as clearly as if I had done so.
